

ALAN R. CRANE

Associate

Alan R. Crane, an associate in the firm, focuses his practice on bankruptcy, family law, real estate and commercial litigation. He joined the firm in 2003 after several years in private practice.

Mr. Crane regularly represents debtors, creditors and/or trustees in chapter 7 and 11 cases, and debtors and creditors in chapter 13 cases. Currently, he represents the bankruptcy trustee in a case involving one of the state's major steakhouse chains. He also represented a bankruptcy trustee in a case involving a now-defunct cruise line.

In the family law arena, Mr. Crane's experience includes divorce, child custody, visitation and child advocacy. He is well-versed in the interplay between bankruptcy and family law, and has served as a resource for local media on both divorce and bankruptcy topics.

In addition, Mr. Crane specializes in litigation and real estate law. He has represented a major title insurance company in various matters throughout the Southern District of Florida.

Committed to pro bono work and community involvement, Mr. Crane was the recipient of the Pro Bono Award for Child Advocacy from the Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County. He is an emeritus member of the American Inns of Court LIV, a professional association designed to improve the skills, professionalism and ethics of the bench and bar.
